LOCAL UNITED WAY RAISES MORE THAN $10.4 MILLION TO HELP OUR COMMUNITY

HARRISBURG – (March 27, 2018) – Thanks to the generosity of our local community, United Way of the Capital Region has exceeded its campaign goal of $10.4 million by raising $10,402,510. United Way made the announcement this afternoon at its Celebration Luncheon at the Hilton in Harrisburg.

“United Way plays a vital role in addressing the most pressing needs in access to health care, school readiness, workforce development and basic needs,” said Campaign Chair Greg Cavoli, general manager of Enterprise Holdings. “Lives are improved every day thanks to the organization’s collective work with community partners and dedicated volunteers. None of this work can be accomplished without resources. From individual gifts to corporate contributions, every gift makes a difference.”

At the event, Timothy B. Fatzinger, United Way of the Capital Region president and CEO, acknowledged the outstanding support of the Pillar Society, which consists of organizations that contribute $100,000 or more in combined corporate and employee giving to United Way. This year, the Pillar Society makes up 59 percent of the entire campaign.
