United Way of the Capital Region

UNITED WAY OF THE CAPITAL REGION AND UNITED WAY WORLDWIDE

United Way of the Capital Region is an independent, autonomous organization governed by a local 33-member Board of Directors who make all decisions about what we do and how we do it.

United Way of the Capital Region pays dues equaling one percent of dollars raised to United Way Worldwide (formerly United Way of America). Membership allows for the following:

- Use of the United Way logo.
- The benefit of nationwide market research.
- Training for professional staff and volunteers.
- Monitoring of legislative issues.
- Comparative and individualized performance analysis.

United Way Worldwide has no governing authority over United Way of the Capital Region.
